As well as celebrating what the students have learned, it is important to promote what we are doing in our schools and share the message with our community. Please remember to include @LLFdn when you are posting pictures of LLF-funded activities on your class or school Twitter feeds so we can retweet and like. As well, we can use these pictures in our e-news blasts, website and Instagram account. You can simply attach any images and a brief caption as the name of the jpeg with this Project Summary Report.*
