

The Limestone Learning Foundation presents

STUDENT TAKE-HOME SHEET

CRYSTAL CONCERT is part of the Limestone Learning Foundation's Crystal Concert Series and will be staged on Saturday, December 15, 2018 at the Grand Theatre, 8PM curtain. This musical smorgasbord will celebrate holiday traditions through song, from blues to jazz, timeless classics and multicultural music. The production will be a large vocal ensemble performance, starring students of the Limestone District School Board. Registration for vocal auditions closes May 11, 2018.

TO AUDITION:

- Students who wish to audition for the Limestone Learning Foundation CRYSTAL CONCERT must be enrolled with the Limestone District School Board, currently in Grades 7 – 11, and returning to a school or program in the Limestone District School Board this September 2018.
- Auditions will be held Saturday, May 26 and Sunday, May 27 at the LDSB Education Centre. Students will be contacted by e-mail regarding the time and location of the auditions. Subsequent call-backs may also occur.
- Students should be prepared to sing two songs for the vocal auditions – "Chestnuts Roasting on an Open Fire," and "Do You Hear What I Hear."
- Students may accompany their voice with one of the following:
 - Their own instrument (only a piano will be provided)
 - A backing track on iPod/iPhone
 - Sheet music, if you wish to be accompanied by our pianist

NEXT STEPS:

- Bring this information sheet home to share with your parents/guardians.
- Students will be contacted through e-mail with date and times of the first round of vocal auditions. Some students may be asked to come for a second audition or "call back."
- Students will be contacted by e-mail regarding the results of their audition in late May.
- Rehearsals will be held on Saturdays and some weeknights during October, November and December 2018.
- A formal media conference and corporate event launch will be held sometime in June to introduce students, sponsors and other special guests to local news media. This event will likely be a weekday morning.
- CRYSTAL CONCERT performance date is Saturday, December 15, 2018. 8PM Curtain. Grand Theatre, Kingston. Dress rehearsal will occur during the day of Friday, December 14, 2018.
